FOREWORD

Forever and ever we will remember!

We will remember our school and everything connected with it. Until we can remember, we will not realize the love we have for it or what a guide and influence it has been for us.

So that we can remember, we, the yearbook staff, present this yearbook as a written song of our memories.

DEDICATION

Spirit is the breath of life; it is life's principle. Without spirit, life would be meaningless. It was such spirit of determination and progress, of charity and zeal, that filled the lives of Saint Francis de Sales and Saint Vincent de Paul and raised them to great heights of sanctity.

Because our school is staffed by the Daughters of the Cross, an order which owes its foundation to these two great saints, our lives are permeated with their Spirit, evident in our prayers, work, and play.

Therefore, we, the Vincentian Staff of 1958, do humbly dedicate this yearbook to that undying Spirit which has made this portrayal of our school life possible.

WHEN WE'RE AWAY

THE DAY OF

WE'LL REMEMBER

Lending sugar and spice to our school life the varied activities flavor every day with a dash of culture, a pinch of energy and a cup of joy.

ACTIVITIES

SPEECH

On November 4, 1957, were received Jo Dell Campbell, president; Mary Elizabeth Young, vice president; Janelle Mayeaux, secretary; Pat Corrington, treasurer; Rita Porteous and Sara Gail Cloutier as members of the National Thespians, Troup 1767, a society for amateur dramatists.

Play production was one of the major projects of the 1957-58 speech class, which presented "The Green Bough" on February 8.

Completing the set for the speech play was the main concern of Camille Danna, Carol Plagens, Ann Robson, Mary Elizabeth Young, Barbara Buchanan, and Janelle Mayeaux.

Some of the newly selected members of the National Thespians proudly display the symbol of their endeavor.

DEBATE

Seniors selected as members of the National Forensic League, an organization honoring student public speakers, were Charlene Atkins, Pat Corrington, Marie Goebel, and Rita Porteous.

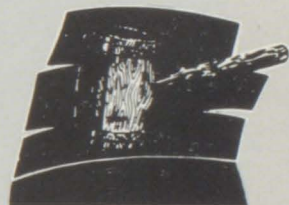

Although receiving superior ratings at the Southwestern Tournament in Lafayette, December 13 and 14, Melanie Martin, Hazel Reagor, Rue Ann Mayeaux, Sara Gail Cloutier, Margaret Gorton, Janelle Mayeaux, Jonie Poudrier, and Patsy Yager believe in practice makes perfect.

Returning from the debate tournament, held in Denton, Texas, on December 13 and 14, are Pat Dunne, Carol Mangham, Rita Sue Pope, Nancy Goodwillie, and LaVelle Hunt.

Debate Officers for the 1957-58 school year are: Margaret Gorton, secretary; Jonie Poudrier, vice president; Janelle Mayeaux, president; and Sara Gail Cloutier, treasurer.

SPEECH

Beginning their search on the debate question are Sharon John, Jerre DeRouen, Jackie Baker, Mary Jo Miller, Rita Davis, Gi Gi Johnson, Sara Giglio, Janie McKean, Linda Ackman, and Nancy Overdyke.

Officers of the Choir for this past year were Alice Whelan, president; Sammie Brocato, vice president; Connie Fulco, secretary; and Ann Robson, treasurer.

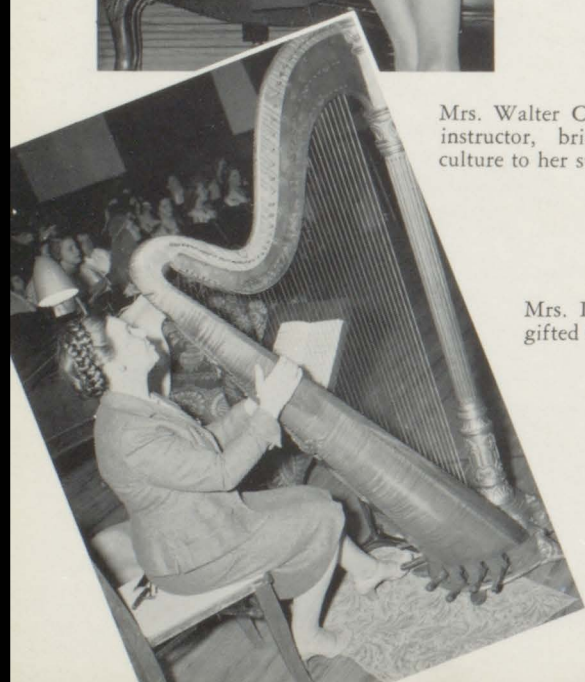

Duets give a better chance for performance to Lamarre Foster, Margaret Lemley, Myra Wayshak, and Jerre DeRouen.

Mrs. Walter Caughey, piano and violin instructor, brings the current music culture to her students.

Mrs. Laura Twist, piano instructor, lends her gifted talent as harpist.

Mary Shepherd tests the speed of the rythocycle for Angelina DeFatta and Pat Carney.

Chorus
Angelorum

In a typical music class, Dolores Brooks illustrates the beginning of theory. Front row: Amelou Freeman, Sara Lyons, Ann Scalf, and Ann Pearce. Back row: Diane Ferguson, Barbara Hoy, and Michele Folse.

Making hats for the annual bazaar was lots of fun, but useful, too, for Mary Elizabeth Young, Jonie Poudrier, Sharon John, Rita Porteous, Kay Michaels, and Natalie Follain.

Packing boxes of food for poor families at Christmas, and thus illustrating the true spirit of the Red Cross, are Lynda Ackman and Sara Giglio.

Red Cross officers for 1957-58 are Vice President, Ruth Johnson; President, Charlene Atkins; and Secretary-Treasurer, Rhoda Collins.

Joan Wheeler, Jeanne Mayeaux, Mary Anna Brooks, Ruth Johnson, Roselyn Guercio, and Charlene Atkins compare notes and posters for the membership drive.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

LIVED

Everyday, in every way, we lived in a rush or a "hush" spilling books and other odds and ends as we crowded into lockers preparing for each part of our school day. Some days were the same; others were decidedly different. But they were all part of our living.

CLASSES

Wednesdays at 11:15
found us assisting at Holy Mass . . .

or preparing rosters for

Latin II Club

French Clubs

Spanish II Club

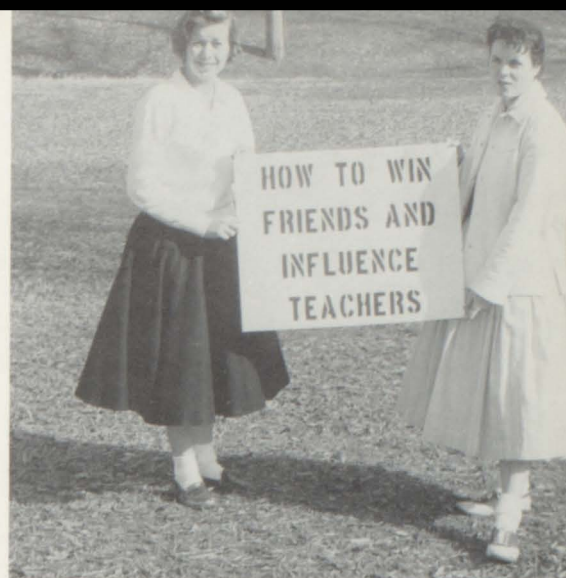

Living in serious moods . . . occasionally or other mornings attending flag raising . . .

Selling worms was more than a pastime for seniors Margaret Gabour, Alice Whelan, and Elaine Zern. Prom expenses were to be met—somehow—anyhow.

Around "test" times Ann Robson and Jonie Poudrier put out their shingle—Advice: 10c or a Coke.

Those "bake sales" in the basement were a challenge to any athlete.

Any day in the cafeteria was hectic, but Mrs. Campbell helped "organize" us at the end of the line.

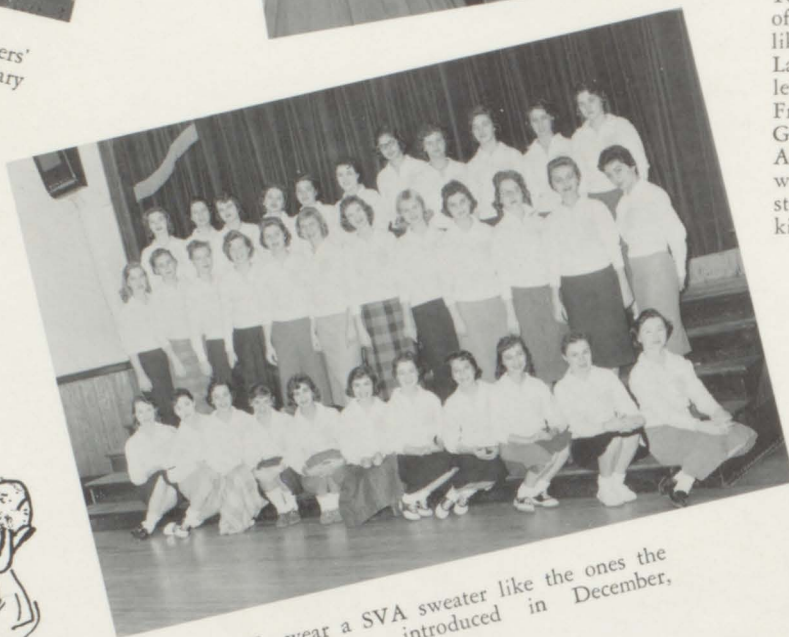

and more tempestuous situations . . .

To enjoy a half-holiday at the Mothers' Club Bazaar like Hazel Reagor, Mary Shepherd, and Carolyn Powers . . .

To take part in Voice of Democracy contest like Rue Ann Mayeaux, LaVelle Hunt, Charlene Atkins, Mary Frances Devlin, Sara Gail Cloutier, and Angelina DeFatta, and win second place in state like Charlene Atkins . . .

To wear a SVA sweater like the ones the senior class introduced in December, 1957 . . .

During the night of the Student Council Dance on December 30, 1957, to wear out socks and shoes . . .

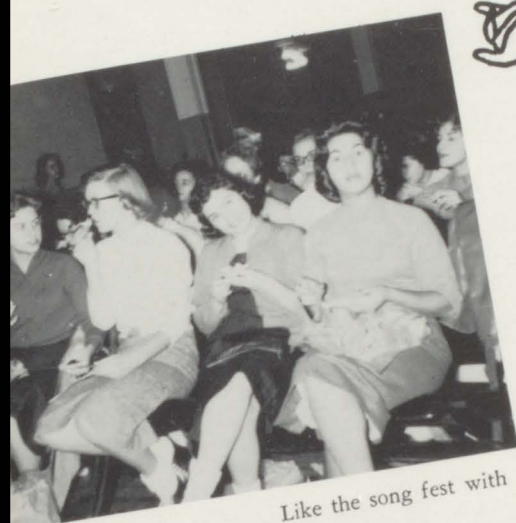

When we felt like Jonie Poudrier, that nothing was too good for that gym suit . . .

Like taking turns at tennis . . .

Also, when we needed a lift for that contrary basket, Eileen Graham, Janet Canterbury and Chee Chee Ligon were there to loft Rita Porteous . . .

Like the song fest with eats . . .

and the Latin II play . . .

When loading the jeep, for a dance, like Janie McKean, Babs Walthers, Ann Pearce, and Nancy Overdyke . . .

Some days . . .

. . . we lived active . . .

JESUS THROUGH MARY

"Everything about Mary directs us to her Son, our only Savior, in an anticipation of whose merits she was immaculate and full of grace. Everything about Mary raises us to the praise of the adorable Trinity; . . . In the school of Mary we will learn to live not only that we may give Christ to the world, but also if need be, to await with faith the hour of Jesus and to remain at the foot of the Cross . . ."

Le Pelerinage de Lourdes
July 2, 1957 — Pope Pius XII

Following Christ's footsteps in our daily lives, we are guided through the star of Mary, His Mother . . .

... TOWARD THE

SODALITY

Father Hart McCown gave the seniors and juniors a retreat at Maryhill which they will always remember.

Joanie Blanchard led the juniors in saying the Rosary in the chapel one afternoon.

This year the Sodality sponsored an outdoor crib scene and each class portrayed the characters of the original crib on a different night. Here the sophomores are pictured adoring the Christ Child.

SODALITY

Court for the annual Sodality dance was Queen, Helen Reagor; and Maids, Pat Corrington, Connie Fulco, Marie Goebel, and Angelina DeFatta.

Our Sodality offers a Holy Hour on the first Thursday of every month. Alice Whelan, Kathy Melancon, Rose Marie Howard, and Jerry Michaels enjoy a break in schedule for a visit with God.

OF OUR LADY

Father Kevin Nowlan installs Kay Blanchard as Prefect, Angelina DeFatta as Secretary, Peggy Phillips as Treasurer, and Pat Corrington as Vice Prefect of the Sodality.

Religious articles are sold at the booth which the Sodality sponsors every year at the bazaar.

Kings for a day chosen by lot from the student body received their crowns from Angelina DeFatta. These Epiphany Kings were Rose Marie Howard, Patsy Semon, and Pat Carney.

Mayor James C. Gardner presented Angelina DeFatta, Prefect of the Sodality Union, J. B. Cordaro, Peggy Phillips, Pat Corrington, J. F. Cordaro, and Key Blanchard with the Catholic Youth Week proclamation for Shreveport during the week of October 27 to November 3.

OFFICIAL COUNCIL OF CATHOLIC YOUTH "BROTHERS & S. S."

Having been established since 1889 as the Prima Primaria, the Sodality of Our Lady of the Presentation, under secondary patronage of Saint Catherine of Siena, today's SVA Sodalists continue the work of the apostolate in first sanctifying self in order to spread the Kingdom of Christ on earth. Projects were aimed toward fulfilling the Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy.

Each class chose two representatives as participants for annual consecration to the Sacred Heart. One from each class carried flowers to present to the statue and the other girl carried a lighted candle in honor of the Sacred Heart.

OF OUR LADY

Peggy Phillips crowned the statue of the Sacred Heart as the whole school read the Act of Consecration to the Sacred Heart.

WE LEARNED

YOU, OUR

THROUGH YOU

Being able to attend St. Vincent's, under the direction of those who help us in using created things for attaining Heaven, is the great blessing which all eventually realize. The wisdom which we have learned through these spiritual guides will remain with us always.

GUIDES TO GOALS

Mother Clarissa and Sister Bernadine, her assistant, are the source of the love exemplified by St. Francis de Sales which is conveyed to us by our teachers.

Truly a guardian, Sister Agnes Ruth, librarian, advises all with timely suggestions.

In distributing medicine to Sister Marietta, grade school principal, Sister Veronica demonstrates one of the extra duties as school nurse.

Sister Rose Marie, sponsor of the choir and the music department, promotes high standards of appreciation for good music.

Sodality moderators, Sister Cabrini, and Sister Laurentia, pause beneath the feet of Our Lady of Lourdes at the grotto, where the annual May Crowning is held.

Through the music department, Sister Joan of Arc has already made acquaintances with high school music students.

With true generosity, Miss Browning and Mrs. Gilliland are always ready to lend assistance outside regular classes.

Miss Phillips, our physical education teacher, daily collects things in disorder and deposits them with Sister Chantal, custodian of the campus store.

Sister Cornelia, principal, and Sister Helen Marie, assistant principal, are duly concerned with our problems of "Credits" and "Merits."

Past alumnae advisor, Sister Miriam, and present advisor, Sister Dorothea, often confer over the alumnae association problems.

Instructing us in the basic knowledge of the modern day and above all instilling a love of the Holy Cross within the heart of each girl, and striving to keep our Blessed Lady before us as a model . . .

Devoted Sister Raphael renders such service that ice cream will always remain the favorite dessert.

OUR

MOST REVEREND CHARLES P. GRECO
BISHOP OF ALEXANDRIA

Sincere in his belief that schools are of prime importance, our Reverend Bishop exemplifies all qualities of a true Spiritual Father, for he would rather build a school to father the mind of the Child so that the spirit of the Man will remain loyal to the Holy Mother Church.
